The Benefits are Exceptional

Three Quality Shows each Year, which everyone can enter from the novice/beginner, who has one good bloom, to the experienced Gardner with the collection of vegetables.

Evening Talks in the King Edward Hall, light but interesting and with a diverse number of subjects the 2018 programme is as follows: -

10th January: Vegetables in Containers - Vanessa Jones

14th February: Fruit Growing - Paul Templeton

14th March: Fuchsias - Derek Dexter

11th April: The Chelsea Physic Garden - A Mediterranean Island in London - Nick Bailey

9th May: Organic Growing - Sandy Wansbury

11th October: Hardy's Cottage Garden Plants - Rosie Hardy

14th November: How to Commit the Perfect Murder (and put the body to good use in the garden afterwards) - Guy Deakins

All talks commence at 8pm (entry £1 for members £2 for visitors, the latter are most welcome)

Coffee Mornings, three times a year on a Saturday morning, we meet in the King Edward Hall for a Coffee and Biscuit and for a natter to friends and to buy a plant or two.

Plant Sales are held throughout the year for the purchase of a wide variety of plants for the Garden and Allotment

The Sundries Centre is open throughout the Year for the sale of brand name quality composts, pesticides, fertilisers and lawn products, at very competitive prices.

Trading Scheme – offering discounts at a number of Nurseries and Garden Centres.

Seed Orders – save 20% on your seed orders each year with Sutton and Dobies.

Day Excursions – at least two outings are organised each year.

Membership costs just £6.00 a year at any of our events (or £6.75 via post).

£10.00 per couple living at the same address (£10.75 via post).

Life Membership is also available at £90.00 (£90.75 via post).
