

A coach outing

Do you fancy a stroll through the beautiful Savill Garden followed by a cruise along the Thames among the majestic swans, with views of Windsor Castle..... plus a cream tea to boot? Well, we have provisionally booked this day out for a group of up to 50 lucky people.

The Savill Garden is a hidden horticultural gem in the heart of Windsor Great Park. Since its creation in the 1930s, The Savill Garden has been an inspiration for all. It is a tranquil place to discover rare plants from around the world, arranged in stunning displays. In the Dry Garden water-wise gardeners can take inspiration from the Mediterranean plants with their silver leaved foliage and herbal scents.

In the afternoon our coach will shuttle us to Runnymede Boathouse for a 2-hour cruise along the river, with commentary along the way. Our ticket price includes for a traditional cream tea for your enjoyment on our cruise; we will be able to scoff scones whilst waving at Windsor Castle, just in case anyone 'special' happens to be looking out of the window. On return to Runnymede, you can take a 'selfie' with Her Majesty the Queen (or, should I say, with the rather exquisite statue of her).

Refreshments:

I'm afraid picnics are not allowed inside the gardens themselves, but can be enjoyed on the Obelisk Lawn beyond the entrance, outside of the gardens. Alternatively, you can take advantage of what's on offer at The Savill Building Café... remembering to leave some room for your cream tea, of course!

Accessibility:

Due to the varied nature of the terrain, some areas of the gardens are more accessible than others and some wheelchair accessible areas require able-bodied assistance in places.

A map of the gardens showing all the accessible routes will be provided to us on arrival.

A limited number of non-motorised wheelchairs are available on a first come first served basis.

Accessible toilets are located in the Visitor Centre. Assistance will be provided for the transfer of scooter/wheelchair users onto the cruise boat.
